OUT! IN THE NAME OF JESUS

A Guide To Deliverance from Demon Bondage

Bill was a former drummer in an acid rock band in California. From his early childhood, he continually heard “voices” which instructed him in various daily activities. He accepted Jesus as his Savior, and separated himself from his old life style and worldly friends, many of whom were involved in drug abuse and the occult. However, even as a born-again Christian, he continued to hear these voices.

They told him where to go. They told him that without their instructions he would lose his mental and musical abilities. Often, both Bill and his mother would see objects floating around the house.

Now, the demon voices were telling him that he was going to be killed. It seemed there was no way of escape. His torment was beyond description. Was there any hope? Could Bill be set free from the anguish that he was experiencing day and night?

Sharon was raised in a non-Christian family. As a small baby, an aunt who was involved with the occult attached a pin to her crib. This act was part of a ceremony dedicating her to Satan. Another traumatic event in her early life also left her full of fears and insecurities.

After she was married, she became a Christian. Later she received the Baptism in the Holy Spirit, but still her life was plagued by sickness, despair, and financial reverses.

Could she escape the curse that was placed on her by her aunt? Must fears and insecurities be a daily part of her life? Was there any way out of her continuous cycle of sickness, despair, and poverty?

Carl was raised in a highly respected and influential Christian family. As he reached his mid-teens, he became rebellious. He turned his back on his relationship with the Lord, and willfully gave himself to lust, illicit sex, and perversion.

He deliberately invited demon spirits into his body so that they would give him power to control others and to involve them in his activities.

At the age of seventeen, the demons were so in control of Carl that he could not speak with his natural voice. Instead, he spoke with the deep, gravelly voice of an old man. Realizing that he was helpless and totally possessed by these demon powers, he desperately wanted to be loosed from their control.

Was it too late? Had his willful act of inviting demon spirits into his body put him beyond the reach of God's power? Was there any way that Carl could be set free?

Mary was rejected by her parents when she was five years old. She was unwanted by her aunt and uncle who unwillingly assumed the responsibility of raising her. On the surface, she was a loving, happy person, but actually she was filled with unforgiveness, resentment, and was suffering from strong feelings of rejection. While still unmarried in her mid-twenties, the doctor told her that she had breast cancer and must have a double mastectomy.

It seemed her whole world had come to an end. Her hopes for marriage and a normal life dimmed. She was gripped by the fear of more rejection, of pain, and even of death.

Bill, Sharon, Carl and Mary all have one thing in common today. They have all been set free from these demonic attacks on their lives.

Bill no longer is tormented by the evil voices, and he has given his musical abilities to the Lord.

Sharon is free from her fears, insecurities, and the many attacks of Satan on her life.

Carl has been set free from the spirits of rebellion, lust, and perversion. He has been restored to fellowship with the Lord and with his family.

Mary forgave her mother and father, and the aunt and uncle who rejected her. She was set free from the torment of rejection and resentment. She was also completely healed of cancer. The surgery was canceled!

As people heard about these and other deliverances from demon bondage, it seemed that there was an endless stream of people desperately begging for us to pray with them, with their family, or friends.

Soon it was impossible to finish our work. We could not give the proper amount of time to our own children. We were ministering deliverance day and night. It seemed that many thought that we possessed a “special deliverance ministry.”

We had discovered the marvelous truth of God’s Word for every believer. Because He who is in you is greater than he who is in the world (I John 4:4b).

However, the people that we were ministering to seemed to believe that greater was He that was in us than He that was in them.

Our time and energy were continuously drained in our desire to help others. There was always great joy in seeing a person delivered and set free, but God had given us other work and responsibilities. These things must be placed first in our lives. Through necessity, we began to seek God for an answer. The need was so great, so many needed help, and yet our time was limited.

In the following pages, you will discover the answer that God revealed to us. You will discover how you can be set free. You will discover that deliverance is not a special ministry for a limited few. It is a sign that should follow every believer.

Jesus said, ‘And these signs will follow those who believe; (all believers) In my name they will cast out demons’ (Mark 16:17a). It is every believer who is to ‘Resist the devil, and he will flee from you’ (James 4 :7b).

You will discover a tremendous truth. It is only the truth found in the Word of God that can set you free.

YOUR BATTLE

Paul describes this battle. “For we wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this world” (Ephesians 6: 12a).

Peter warns, “Be sober, be vigilant; because your adversary the devil walks about like a roaring lion, seeking whom he may devour.” (I Peter 5:8).

We can no longer sit with our hands folded, a pious expression on our face, and convince ourselves that if we ignore the devil, surely, he will go away.

Even the Apostle Paul wrote of his struggles with Satan and demon forces. He states, “Wherefore we would have come unto you, even I Paul, once and again; but Satan hindered us” (I Thessalonians 2:18). He also said that he was bothered by a messenger of Satan that buffeted him (II Corinthians 12:7).

Paul warned Timothy that some Christians would depart from the faith, because they would give heed to seducing spirits, and doctrines of devils (I Timothy 4:1).

The word translated “demon possessed” in the Bible, “daimonizomai,” actually means demonized,” or “bothered by demons.” Many Christians are needlessly bothered by demons not realizing that Jesus has given us a wonderful assurance. He declared that He has given us the power to tread on serpents (the devil) and scorpions (demons), and over all the power of the enemy: and nothing shall by any means hurt you (Luke 10:19).

YOUR SALVATION AND GOD'S FORGIVENESS

The first step in winning a battle is to be certain you are on the right side. By praying the following prayer, sincerely, you can know that you are part of God's family and have eternal life.

Father,

I know that I am a sinner. I know that Jesus died to pay the penalty of my sin, and that He rose again from the dead. I now accept your gift of salvation and forgiveness. I accept Jesus Christ as my personal Savior.

Amen

The moment that you prayed that prayer, and meant it from your heart, you were born into the family of God. You received total forgiveness for every sin that you have ever committed.

God said, "I will forgive their iniquity, and their sin will I remember no more" (Jeremiah 31:34b). His Word also tells us that, "the blood of Jesus Christ His Son cleanses us from all sin" (I John 1:7).

A believer can maintain continual fellowship with God and keep the doors closed to Satan by confessing every sin to God. If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness (I John 1:9).

To “confess your sins” means to agree with God about the nature of your sin as you acknowledge it to God.

Be quick to confess each wrong to God. Take time right now, and pray this prayer with me.

*Lord,
I confess my sins of _____ and By faith I receive your forgiveness and cleansing in the name of Jesus.*

YOUR FORGIVENESS OF OTHERS

The Apostle Paul warned the Corinthians about the necessity of forgiving others, Lest Satan should take advantage of us: for we are not ignorant of his devices (II Corinthians 2:11).

If we hold unforgiveness in our hearts against others, the Bible says that Satan can gain an advantage over us. This advantage becomes an open door through which he can successfully attack a Christian. We are told, “Nor give place to the devil” (Ephesians 4:27).

There are few Christians who have not been hurt or wronged by others. Rejection, or feelings of rejection, from early childhood often become an open door for Satan’s attack if not dealt with properly.

A traumatic experience, an accident, a divorce, or a death in the family often leaves an individual with open doors through which Satan hurls his fiery darts of bitterness, resentment, arthritis, or even cancer.

Mary, who was rejected by her parents and her aunt and uncle at an early age, held that hurt and unforgiveness in her heart for many years. This unforgiveness made an open door for Satan to attack her body with breast cancer.

I did not know Mary before she walked into my office one day before her scheduled surgery for cancer. I did not know about her unforgiveness until God revealed it to me through the gift of the word of knowledge.

As I talked with her concerning the unforgiveness that God revealed to me, she began to sob. As she wept, she prayed with me. She forgave her parents, and her aunt and uncle. In that moment, God healed the hurt that she had been carrying in her heart almost all of her life. The door to Satan's attack of cancer on her body was closed.

We did not pray for God to heal the cancer. God healed her as she forgave those who hurt her. Another test at the hospital confirmed that she was completely healed. The surgery for the next day was canceled.

Forgiveness is not an option for the Christian. It is a commandment of God. Jesus tells us that 'But if you do not forgive men their trespasses, neither will your Father forgive your trespasses" (Matthew 6:15).

What an awesome truth. If we do not forgive, we cannot be forgiven. The good news is that we as Christians can forgive, because Jesus forgave. We have God's forgiveness within us.

You may say, "I don't feel like forgiving them. They don't deserve to be forgiven." We do not forgive based on our feelings, emotions or reason.

Forgiveness is an act of the will based on our decision to obey God.

You can close this door to Satan's attack by praying this prayer of forgiveness right now: this prayer of forgiveness right now:

Father,

In obedience to God's word, I have decided to forgive . I know that Jesus has forgiven me, and I, therefore, now forgive for the things that he, or she, has done to hurt me and others. In Jesus' name I will no longer hold unforgiveness in my heart against

Amen

When Jesus forgave us, He said, "their sins and iniquities will I remember no more" (Hebrews 10:17). He will never again count our sins against us. Likewise, we must never again let ourselves think about the hurts, or hold anything against those whom we have forgiven.

YOUR CLEANSING FROM OCCULT INVOLVEMENT

Many doors are opened to Satan through the occult. One of the greatest dangers is that we have thought of these things as harmless.

“It was a game. We were just playing for fun. I didn’t believe in it!” we protest.

We may have thought we were playing a game, but in the spirit world it was, and is, much more than a harmless pastime. It may have been an opening for a demonic attack.

We have listed many areas of the occult. As you read this list, you will see how easy it has been to be involved in satanic areas without realizing it. As you carefully read the following list, listen to the Holy Spirit within you and He will recall to your mind incidents that must be renounced.

Some examples of occult practices are: fortune telling, crystal balls, tea leaves, tarot cards, pendulum, palm reading, Ouija board, horoscope, astrology, hypnotism, yoga, karate, séance, conjurations, incantations, spirit guide, necromancy, consulting mediums, life or reincarnation readings.

The list is long. It goes on to include: reading or watching psychic books, movies, or television programs, psychic healers, spiritualist mediums, charmers, water witching, levitation, automatic writing, charms, fetishes such as a rabbit’s foot, magic (both white and black), witchcraft, sorcery spells and hexes, clairvoyance, telepathy, mind readings, E.S.P., marijuana, or other drug abuse, mind science religions, transcendental meditation, astral projections, involvement in secret lodges or organizations, and rock music having hidden or overt occultism.

It is necessary to close any doors that you may have opened to Satan in the past. Satan does not “play fair.” He is not concerned with your motives for being involved in these areas. They belong to him and you are ‘open to his attack until you renounce every incident. Close the door to each occult demon power by boldly declaring:

I renounce _____ and _____ and _____, and my involvement in _____ in the name of Jesus.

Take the time you need to listen to God’s voice within you. Go over this list several times, praying every time you remember an association with one of these things.

Now that you have closed the doors left from your past life, you should clean out your environment. If you have in your possession any books, records, tapes, jewelry or other objects that have anything to do with any of the above practices, they must be burned or destroyed.

Images, or objects representing false religious worship, Buddhas, Tikis, or voodoo dolls, must be destroyed along with frog, snake and owl objects as they are creatures of the night often involved with the occult. Recordings of rock music, or any other type of music, that encourages ungodly revelations, drug abuse, illicit sex, perversion, or Satan worship must be destroyed and boldly denounced.

Many of those who had practiced magic brought their books together and burned them in the sight of all. And they counted up the value of them, and it totaled fifty thousand pieces of silver. So the word of the Lord grew mightily and prevailed (Acts 19:19,20).

YOUR COMMITMENT

Another door that Satan will try to use is the door of self-will and rebellion. It must be closed by committing your spirit, body and soul, one-hundred percent, to Jesus as the Lord of your life. Maybe you feel “wanting to do your own thing” is not serious or even of much importance to God. But the Bible states Gods thoughts on this subject very clearly. “For rebellion is as the sin of witchcraft, and stubbornness is as iniquity and idolatry” (I Samuel 15:23a).

“Now the body is not for sexual immorality, but for the Lord; and the Lord for the body.

“Do you not know that your body is the temple of the Holy Spirit who is in you, whom you have from God, and you are not your own? For you were bought at a price; therefore glorify God in your body and in your spirit, which are God's (I Corinthians 6:13b,19,20).

“I beseech you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, that ye present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable to God, which is your reasonable service. And do not be conformed to this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your mind, that you may prove what is that good and acceptable and perfect will of God” (Romans 12:1,2).

To be victorious in the battle with Satan, we must renounce any involvement with the pleasures of this world. We must be totally committed to obeying God's Word. We must continually renew our minds with the Word of God, and commit our lives totally to God's will. We must consider ourselves a part of God's army and as with any effective soldier, we must be committed to win.

Dear Lord,

I present my body to You. I commit myself to You as Lord of my life. I determine to obey You and Your Word in every area of my life. As a new creation, I now present my body, my emotions, my intellect, my time, and all my possessions to your Lordship. I submit my will to your will in all that I do for the rest of my life.

In Jesus name, Amen

YOUR NEED — DISCERNING OF SPIRITS

Some of us, discovering for the first time that the devil is out to destroy us, blame the devil or demons for all our problems. Often it is our own fleshly desires that are causing the trouble. Peter has instructed us to Be sober, be vigilant; because your adversary the devil walks about like a roaring lion, seeking whom he may devour (I Peter 5:8).

Especially in this area of spiritual warfare, we must keep our eyes on Jesus, and not be preoccupied with the devil and looking for demons all of the time. We are instead to be continually occupied with Jesus.

Our ultimate goal is not only to be delivered from demon powers, but to be conformed to the image of God's Son. We must avoid any lack of balance that would take our eyes away from Jesus. We must not give the devil any more attention than he is due as a defeated foe.

However, if you, or someone else is being bothered by demon forces, God will reveal the source of the problem to you by the gift of the discerning of spirits. When God has revealed the presence of demons, you deal with them according to what the scriptures teach.

Once you have cast out the demon spirits by the authority of the name of Jesus and the power of the Holy Spirit, keep your thoughts continually on Jesus and the good things of His Word. Since you are filled with the Holy Spirit, whenever there is an area of spiritual bondage that God wants you to deal with, God will reveal it to your spirit. That is the operation of the gift of discerning of spirits which is one of the nine supernatural gifts of the Holy Spirit.

Some of the areas that God may reveal to you are listed here.

Emotional Problems

Persistent problems with anger, resentment, hatred, jealousy, rejection, depression, fear, worry, inferiority, and insecurity

Mental Problems

Confusion, loss of memory, mental torment, and doubt

Uncontrolled Tongue

Lying, gossip, criticism, nagging, cursing, and blasphemy

Addictions

Nicotine, alcohol, drug abuse, and unnatural compulsions for food or drink

Physical Infirmities

Often “incurable illnesses” are caused by a spirit of infirmity, such as deafness, arthritis, or cancer

Religious Spirits

False religions, cults, occult, spiritism, and seducing spirits of false doctrine

Satan and demon spirits work to enslave, defile and torment. Their objective is to kill, steal and destroy. Thank God, by the revelation gifts of the Holy Spirit, we are not ignorant of Satan’s devices and he will have no advantage over us.

YOUR PROTECTION — THE BLOOD OF JESUS

And they overcame him by the blood of the Lamb, and by the word of their testimony (Revelation 12: 11a).

It was the blood of Jesus that atoned for the sins of the human race, and released us from Satan's dominion.

The blood of Jesus, when accepted by faith, provides a covering of protection for the believer, his family and possessions. We do not "plead" the blood as if we were begging for God's protection. We simply accept and acknowledge what is already ours by faith.

Jesus told the seventy disciples that He was sending them out to minister, "Behold, I give you the authority to trample on serpents (the devil) and scorpions (demons), and over all the power of the enemy, and nothing shall by any means hurt you" (Luke 10:19).

Pray this prayer with me:

Lord,

I thank You that I am not at any disadvantage, nor do I have any fear in dealing with the devil and demon powers because You have given me power over all the power of the enemy and nothing shall by any means hurt me. By faith, I acknowledge the covering and protection of your precious blood over myself, my family, my home and all my possessions. Thank you, Lord, for your protection in the name of Jesus.

Amen

YOUR AUTHORITY — THE NAME OF JESUS

Jesus said, And these signs will follow those who believe: In My name they will cast out demons (Mark 16:17a).

Joel said, “Whosoever calls on the name of the LORD (Jesus) shall be saved” (Joel 2:32a).

Solomon said, “The name of the LORD is a strong tower: the righteous run to it, and are safe” (Proverbs 18:10).

The seventy returned with joy to Jesus saying, “Lord, even the demons are subject unto us in Your name.” And Jesus answered, “Behold, I give you the authority to trample on serpents and scorpions, and over all the power of the enemy, and nothing shall by any means hurt you” (Luke 10:17b,19).

Paul spoke to the spirit of divination that possessed the damsel. “I command you in the name of Jesus Christ to come out of her. And he came out that very hour” (Acts 16:18b).

YOUR POWER — THE HOLY SPIRIT

Luke tells us that Jesus called his twelve disciples together, and gave them power and authority over all devils (Luke 9:1). In the next chapter he writes that this power was over all the power of the enemy. In Acts he gives us the source of this power, "You shall receive power when the Holy Spirit has come upon you" (Acts 1:8a).

Matthew said that we can "cast out devils by the Spirit of God" (Matthew 12:28a).

Satan is overpowered by the power of the Holy Spirit in your life.

Paul wrote that we are to be strong in the Lord and the power of His might. He went on to inform us about our armour and the weapons we are to use to stand against the wiles of the devil. He said that we are to pray "always with all prayer and supplication in the Spirit" (Ephesians 6:18a).

When writing to the Corinthians he stated, "For if I pray in an unknown tongue, my spirit prays" (I Corinthians 14: 14a). As we pray in the Spirit in our heavenly language, God's power is released in our lives to stand against the attacks of Satan and over the power of the enemy.

As we pray in the Spirit, the gifts of the Holy Spirit are set free to operate in our lives. The gift of discerning of spirits will alert us to demonic activity. The gift of the word of knowledge will identify these demon spirits, and the gift of wisdom will lead us into victorious spiritual combat and deliverance.

When we are led by the Lord into a spiritual fast, our spirit man will become more sensitive to things of the spirit world. It will take greater precedence over the desires of our soul and body. Our spiritual perception can become clearer, the gifts often operate more freely and with greater clarity at this time. It was for this reason that Jesus once told His disciples that “This kind can come out by nothing, but prayer and fasting” (Mark 9:29b).

Without minimizing the importance of prayer and fasting, however, we should remember that it was after this event that Jesus defeated and spoiled principalities and powers.

At His death Jesus defeated Satan and fulfilled the prophecy that man (Jesus) would “bruise his head.” At that time, Satan was put under the feet of Jesus, and since we are His body, Satan and all his demon powers are’ still under our feet.

Jesus has given every believer the authority of His name, to use over all of the power of the enemy.

Often when we come against demons, they will try to make us feel guilt and condemnation so that we will not be able to cast them out. They will try to put the thought in our minds that we lack the ability to defeat them because we have not spent hours in prayer and fasting before we came against them. When we know our authority in the name of Jesus, and have faith in that name, demons must obey when we command them to leave.

YOUR WEAPON — THE WORD OF GOD

I can remember when I was a boy how I spent quite a lot of my time reading stories about knights in shining armor. I used to picture myself dressed in a shining metal suit, riding a great white horse, and defeating the enemy.

It is exciting to read about the amour of God. God did not tell us to put on our amour. Instead, He has given us God's amour. When we stand firm and tall in His amour, to Satan we look exactly like God. This is our defense. Put on the whole armor of God, that you may be able to stand against the wiles of the devil (Ephesians 6:11).

We are not to be on the defense when it comes to dealing with the devil and his demons. We are to take the offense. We are to use the weapon, described as the sword of the Spirit, which is the Word of God.

When Jesus was at Peter's home in Capernaum, Matthew relates, "When evening had come, they brought to Him many who were demon-possessed. And He cast out the spirits with a word, and healed all who were sick" (Matthew 8:16).

Earlier that day the centurion came to Jesus and told Him of his servant who was grievously tormented. The centurion was a military man and understood authority, and he said to Jesus, "Speak the word only, and my servant shall be healed" (Matthew 8:8).

We use the sword of the Spirit, which is the Word of God, by speaking the Word out of our mouths. For the word of God is living and powerful, and sharper than any two-edged sword (Hebrews 4: 12a).

Jesus is described with this same two-edged sword coming out of His mouth (Revelation 1:16).

Notice that we do not defeat Satan and his tormenting demons by speaking the problems. We are told to speak the Word only. We must guard the tongue for Death and life are in the power of the tongue (Proverbs 18:21a).

When we speak negative words and doubts, we release Satan's power of death and destruction. However, when we speak the Word only, we release words of deliverance, health and life.

Jesus is our example. When he was tempted in the wilderness by Satan, He won the victory by speaking the Word.

In Matthew we read, He answered and said, "It is written, 'Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that proceeds from the mouth of God.'

Jesus said to him, "It is written again, 'You shall not tempt the Lord your God.' "

Then Jesus said to him, "Away with you, Satan! For it is written, 'You shall worship the Lord your God, and Him only you shall serve.' "

Then the devil left Him," (Matthew 4:4,7,10,11a).

If you want the devil to leave, do what Jesus did. He spoke the Word of God out of His mouth. He did exactly as James wrote for us to do, Resist the devil, and he will flee from you (James 4:7b).

The Apostle John wrote, And they overcame him (Satan) by the blood of the Lam, and by the word of their testimony (Revelation 12:11). Another translation could be, literally, “the word in their testimony.”

As you meditate on the verses at the end of this book, and then repeatedly speak them out loud to the devil, you will be set free.

God said through the Prophet Isaiah, “So shall My word be that goes forth from My mouth; it shall not return to Me void, but it shall accomplish what I please, and it shall prosper in the thing for which I sent it” (Isaiah 55:11).

YOUR FAITH — A SHIELD OF PROTECTION

John said, “For whatsoever is born of God overcomes the world. And this is the victory that overcomes the world –even our faith” (I John 5:4).

Faith produces victory! The book of Hebrews tells us of the great men and women of the Old Testament who through faith subdued kingdoms, worked righteousness, obtained promises, stopped the mouths of lions, quenched the violence of fire, escaped the edge of the sword, out of weakness were made strong, became valiant in battle, turned to flight the armies of the aliens (Hebrews 11:33,34),

According to the Apostle Paul, through faith, we can subdue the kingdoms of Satan. We can stop the mouth of the devil, our enemy, the one who goes around as a roaring lion.

Faith will make us strong in the battle against the alien forces of Satan. Faith will turn his demon forces to flight.

The Apostle Paul in his letter to the Ephesians wrote of the powerful shield of faith. Above all, taking the shield of faith with which you will be able to quench all the fiery darts of the wicked one (Ephesians 6:16).

These fiery darts are the negative thoughts, doubts, and fears that Satan continuously tries to put into our minds.

If we allow these thoughts to stay in our minds, we will soon begin to imagine ourselves as sick, defeated, poverty-stricken, helpless individuals. Soon these fiery darts of the enemy will have become our thoughts and will have become a strong hold over our minds and bodies.

Paul said, “For though we walk in the flesh, we do not war according to the flesh. For the weapons of our warfare are not carnal but mighty in God for pulling down strongholds, casting down arguments and every high thing that exalts itself against the knowledge of God, bringing every thought into captivity to the obedience of Christ” (II Corinthians 10:3-5). When the lies of Satan come against our minds, as we are standing in faith, these fiery darts bounce off our shield of faith and are cast down. We can walk in victory every time. Where then do we obtain this shield of faith? “So then faith comes by hearing, and hearing by the word of God” (Romans 10:17).

As you read, meditate, and speak the verses at the end of this book, your faith will grow. You will walk in deliverance, freedom, and victory. You will begin to visualize yourself as “more than conquerors” (Romans 8:37).

When it comes to dealing with Satan and demon forces, your faith will rise up and “overcome them, because greater is He who is in you (Jesus) than he (Satan) who is in the world” (I John 4:4).

YOUR VICTORY — STEPS TO FREEDOM

You, as a believer, have the authority to cast out demons. You do not need to look for someone with a special deliverance ministry.

The Bible says, “And these signs will follow those who believe: In My name they will cast out demons” (Mark 16:17a).

It also tells every believer to “resist the devil and he will flee from you” (James 4:7b).

If you have an unusually strong oppression from the enemy, you may wish a Spirit-filled friend to pray with you, one who will join you in an agreement of faith for your deliverance. If one can put a thousand to flight, two can put ten thousand to flight (see Deuteronomy 32:30).

Make certain that you have read and meditated on the verses at the end of this book, until your faith has become strong, and you are ready to believe for, and receive, your total deliverance.

I suggest that for a period of at least one week, you read each scripture out loud three times a day: morning, noon and night.

When your faith in God's Word has become strong, you will resist Satan with the actual authority of God. His Word is alive and powerful, and the devil and demons know they must obey.

Now, you are ready to claim your victory.

Step One

You have prayed the prayers in the preceding pages of this book. Now, thank the Lord for the protection of His blood, and for the authority of His Word. Ask the Lord for the operations of the gifts of discerning of spirits, and the word of knowledge and wisdom.

Step Two

Boldly state out loud, "Satan, I bind you in the Name of Jesus. For the Word of God states that whatever you bind on earth will be bound in heaven, and whatever you loose on earth will be loosed in heaven (Matthew 16:19b)

Step Three

In the same way bind the strong man. The Holy Spirit may give you his exact name or function by the word of knowledge. Bind the demon spirits that have been the “power:’ the “prince,” or “rulers” of Satan’s attack on your life.

You have cut off the power of the devil and his stronghold over your mind or body.

"But if I cast out demons by the Spirit of God, surely the kingdom of God has come upon you. Or else how can one enter a strong man's house and plunder his goods, unless he first binds the strong man? And then he will spoil his house" (Matthew 12:28,29).

Step Four

Begin to “spoil his house” by boldly and forcibly commanding the demon spirits to leave. As the Holy Spirit leads you, call them by name or function (fear, lust, anger, etc.).

In the name of Jesus command them to come out, or leave. Begin to boldly speak, as you read, or quote, these deliverance scriptures to the demon spirits.

Do not be surprised if there are some manifestations or discomfort as the demons leave. Keep quoting God’s Word and commanding them to leave.

Continue this process. Exercise your spiritual authority until you feel a “release” in your spirit. You have spoiled the house of the “strong man.” He is helpless. Command him to leave, and he has to go.

You may find that if you have been attacked, or bothered, in several different areas of your life, the Holy Spirit will reveal other “rulers” or “powers” to you. Continue dealing with them in this same way until you feel a total freedom in your spirit.

Step Five

Now declare boldly, “In the name of Jesus, I am free!” Repeat this several times until its reality strikes a note of joy in your spirit.

Step Six

Ask God to fill you with His Holy Spirit, and having received the Baptism in the Holy Spirit, begin to pray in your heavenly language. Let the rivers of living water flow out of your spirit.

YOUR ARMORY — VERSES FOR DELIVERANCE

The following is a list of verses from God’s Word. They can bring you freedom and deliverance. Read them out loud three times a day: morning, noon and night.

The first time you read these scriptures, claim them as God’s promises to you. As you meditate upon their meanings, visualize them as being true in your life.

The second time, read them as a prayer from God's Word to the Lord. An example is, "Father, I thank you that I am the seed of the righteous and that I shall be delivered."

The third time, read them forcefully out loud, with confidence and authority. Quote these passages to your enemy, the devil.

These verses are God's Word. They are alive and powerful. They have the same authority as the words used by Jesus to resist the devil. As you speak these words with confidence, you too will cast out the spirits with a word (Matthew 8:16b).

YOU TOO WILL BE SET FREE!

VERSES TO BE READ ALOUD
THREE TIMES A DAY

The posterity of the righteous will be delivered.

Proverbs 11:21b

“And ye shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free.

Therefore if the Son makes you free, you shall be free indeed”.

John 8:32,36

“Be sober, be vigilant; because your adversary the devil walks about like a roaring lion, seeking whom he may devour. Resist him, steadfast in the faith”

I Peter 5:8,9a

“Fight the good fight of faith.”

I Timothy 6:12a

“Finally, my brethren, be strong in the Lord and in the power of His might. Put on the whole armor of God, that you may be able to stand against the wiles of the devil.

“For we do not wrestle against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this age, against spiritual hosts of wickedness in the heavenly places.

“Therefore take up the whole armor of God, that you may be able to withstand in the evil day, and having done all, to stand.

“Stand therefore, having girded your waist with truth, having put on the breastplate of righteousness, and having shod your feet with the preparation of the gospel of peace; above all, taking the shield of faith with which you will be able to quench all the fiery darts of the wicked one.

“And take the helmet of salvation, and the sword of the Spirit, which is the word of God; praying always with all prayer and supplication in the Spirit, being watchful to this end with all perseverance and supplication for all the saints.”

Ephesians 6:10-18

“Yet in all these things we are more than conquerors through Him who loved us.

“For I am persuaded that neither death nor life, nor angels nor principalities nor powers, nor things present nor things to come, nor height nor depth, nor any other created thing, shall be able to separate us from the love of God which is in Christ Jesus our Lord.”

Romans 8:37-39

Having wiped out the handwriting of requirements that was against us, which was contrary to us. And He has taken it out of the way, having nailed it to the cross.

Having disarmed principalities and powers, He made a public spectacle of them, triumphing over them in it.

Colossians 2:14,15

"For though we walk in the flesh, we do not war according to the flesh.

"For the weapons of our warfare are not carnal but mighty in God for pulling down strongholds, casting down arguments and every high thing that exalts itself against the knowledge of God, bringing every thought into captivity to the obedience of Christ".

II Corinthians 10:3-5

The name of the LORD is a strong tower, the righteous run to it and are safe.

Proverbs 18:10

And it shall come to pass that whoever calls on the name of the LORD shall be saved.

Joel 2:32a

Then the seventy returned with joy, saying, "Lord, even the demons are subject to us in Your name."

"Behold, I give you the authority to trample on serpents and scorpions, and over all the power of the enemy, and nothing shall by any means hurt you".

Luke 10:17,19

"And these signs will follow those who believe: In My name they will cast out demons."

Mark 16:17a

Paul, greatly annoyed, turned and said to the spirit, "I command you in the name of Jesus Christ to come out of her." And he came out that very hour.

Acts 16 :18b

But He answered and said, "It is written, 'Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that proceeds from the mouth of God.' "

Jesus said to him, "It is written again, 'You shall not tempt the Lord your God.' "

Then Jesus said to him, "Away with you, Satan! For it is written, 'You shall worship the Lord your God, and Him only you shall serve.'"

Matthew 4:4, 7, 10

When evening had come, they brought to Him many who were demon-possessed. And He cast out the spirits with a word.

Matthew 8 16 a

For the word of God is living and powerful, and sharper than any two-edged sword, piercing even to the division of soul and spirit, and of joints and marrow, and is a discerner of the thoughts and intents of the heart.

Hebrews 4:12

And they overcame him (Satan) by the blood of the Lamb and by the word of their testimony, and they did not love their lives to the death.

Revelation 12: 11a

For God hath not given us the spirit of fear, but of power, and of love, and of a sound mind.

II Timothy 1:7

"But you shall receive power when the Holy Spirit has come upon you."

Acts 1:8a

"The Spirit of the Lord is upon Me, because He has anointed Me to preach the gospel to the poor. He has sent Me to heal the brokenhearted, to preach deliverance to the captives and recovery of sight to the blind, to set at liberty those who are oppressed."

Luke 4:18

"But if I cast out demons by the Spirit of God, surely the kingdom of God has come upon you. Or else how can one enter a strong man's house and plunder his goods, unless he first binds the strong man? And then he will plunder his house."

Matthew 12:28, 29

"But if I cast out demons with the finger of God, surely the kingdom of God has come upon you.

"When a strong man, fully armed, guards his own palace, his goods are in peace.

"But when a stronger than he comes upon him and overcomes him, he takes from him all his armor in which he trusted, and divides his spoils."

Luke 11:20-22

“You are of God, little children, and have overcome them, because He who is in you is greater than he who is in the world.”

I John 4:4

Therefore submit to God. Resist the devil and he will flee from you.

James 4:7

But thanks be to God, who gives us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ.

I Corinthians 15:57

YOUR CONTINUAL FREEDOM

You are free! The abundant Christian life is not one that requires continual deliverance, but one of walking in continual freedom.

Now that you have been set free, do not continue to think about demons and their effect on your past life.

Satan will often try to throw fiery darts of symptoms at you to make you think that he still has a hold on your life. It is a lie! He now has no legal claim on your life. Quote the Word of God at him, and tell him to leave.

Keep your thoughts away from demons, and keep them on Jesus and His Word.

Finally, brethren, whatever things are true, whatever things are noble, whatever things are just, whatever things are pure, whatever things are lovely, whatever things are of good report, if there is any virtue and if there is anything praiseworthy - meditate on these things (Philippians 4:8).

Fill your heart with positive thoughts from God's Word. Meditate continually upon the Lord. See yourself as being all that God says that you are. Visualize yourself doing what God says you can do.

Expect and receive all that God says is yours. Build yourself up by praying in the Spirit. Learn to know the love of Christ which passes knowledge; that you may be filled with all the fullness of God (Ephesians 3:19).

Satan and demon spirits have no advantage over you for we are not ignorant of his devices (II Corinthians 2:11 b).

Jesus said, "When an unclean spirit goes out of a man, he goes through dry places, seeking rest, and finds none.

"Then he says, 'I will return to my house from which I came.' And when he comes, he finds it empty, swept, and put in order."

"Then he goes and takes with him seven other spirits more wicked than himself, and they enter and dwell there; and the last state of that man is worse than the first. So shall it also be with this wicked generation." (Matthew 12:43-45a).

When the demon spirits that have been bothering you come back to their former house, they will find you full of God's love, full of His Word. The Holy Spirit of God will be flowing out of your being like a river of living water. They will no longer be able to trespass on God's property, because your body is the temple of the Holy Spirit.

Jesus has come to set the captives free. He has come to destroy the works of the devil. He defeated the devil and all his demon powers when He died on the cross, rose from the dead, and ascended to the Father.

Now He has given you authority over all the power of the enemy! You have resisted the devil and he has fled!

In Jesus name you have cast out devils!

REJOICE!

YOU ARE MORE THAN A CONQUEROR!

IN JESUS, YOU ARE FREE!

A.L. Gill is an internationally known author, evangelist, and Bible teacher with over a million books in print. His ministry has taken him to more than fifty nations where thousands have been touched by the power of God through his crusades, seminars, and Bible schools.

Dr. A.L. Gill and his wife, Joyce, are equipping believers for powerful and effective "miracle evangelism" as they teach how to minister healing to the sick, deliverance to the oppressed, and how to operate in the gifts of the Holy Spirit.

Out! In the Name of Jesus is a powerful, practical guide to deliverance for those who are bothered by demon spirits. These simple, step-by-step instructions lead through salvation, forgiveness, commitment to God, and the renouncement of all occult involvement. They lead to total spiritual freedom and victory.

Out! In the Name of Jesus is a self-guide to the oppressed and an important tool for Christian workers. It is an effective, balanced approach based solidly on the Word of God.
